

Traditional Irish Night

The Corn Barn, Bunratty Folk Park, Co. Clare

- On arrival at the Corn Barn guests are welcomed by the 'Fear an Ti' (Irish for Man of the House) and are offered a welcome drink of Carolans Irish Cream Liqueur or a glass of mead.
- The Fear an Tí introduces an evening of entertainment which celebrates all the best traditions of Ireland in music, song and dance.
- Guests are then invited to dine in the Corn Barn – a homely venue which retains the ambience and aspects of 19th century Ireland. The 4 course meal is a pleasant balance of Irish traditional dishes with musical accompaniment.
- Following dinner a full entertainment show includes storytelling, dancing and Irish Music with instrumental pieces and ballads weaving the history of the music through the ages. You are invited to enjoy the company of the finest singers, dancers and musicians of the local villages and experience the homeliness, friendship and warmth of a true traditional Irish evening.
